

VILLAGE OF ISLAND PARK
LOCAL LAW NO. 7 OF 1991

A local law regulating unreasonable or excessive noise

Be it enacted by the Mayor and Board of Trustees of the Village of Island Park as follows:

1. It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or any other business enterprise to make, cause or allowed to be made any unreasonable or excessive noise including, but not limited to, noise resulting from the operation of any band or orchestra, radio, phonograph, recording device, juke box or sound related producing device or instrument or from any device amplifying any of said noises or from making unreasonable or excessive outcries, loud singing or exclamations or any other excessive or unreasonable noise by a person or group of persons or from a device to amplify such noise.
2. The making of sounds outdoors from a band or orchestra consisting of three or more pieces without a permit or license shall be presumptive evidence of a violation of this law.
3. Any performance, concert, band or orchestra or group for which a permit or license has been granted by the Village shall be exempt from the provisions of this law.
4. If such a violation is caused or permitted by a commercial enterprise not only the persons making the noise shall be liable but also the corporation, if so there be, and any officers or directors thereof having knowledge of the same or the manager of any such commercial enterprise.
5. Any application for a permit to conduct an outdoor performance, concert or other exhibition causing more than customary noise shall be made to the Village Clerk, who shall have the authority to issue such a permit with or without limitations and conditions and subject to revocation for good cause.
6. A person aggrieved by such unreasonable or excessive noise may complain to a police officer. It shall be the duty of such officer, if he finds the complaint justified, to take such steps as are necessary to abate immediately the condition.

7. Any person or corporation violating this law shall be liable to a fine of not more than $100 for the first violation, $250 for the second violation and not more than $500 for each subsequent violation and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten days. Each day the violation continues shall be a separate violation.
8. If any portion of this law shall be held unconstitutional it shall not affect the remaining portions.
